At Thursday's meeting we'll get at the following...

- have a quick welcome and review of how we manage the Zoom calls for any newcomers

- take a look at the photos that each of you send in for "what's on the bench" (completed and in-progress projects)

- Mark and Lloyd will bring you up to speed on how their visit to the Queen's University Art Class went

- John Lemay recently attended the CCA "Carve the Rockies" gathering in Colorado Springs and will review some photos and highlights

- A number of us attended the Hamilton Wood Show and we'll speak to that a bit

- John Paul and Mark will remind everyone of the upcoming TNCC Virtual Show. To that end, at our last meeting we decided to make our December Virtual Show and Competition Christmas related. So, carve something up that's Christmas related and get some good photos into us (just on my email) by December 7th.
