Oct 16th, 2024

26 Carvers attended today's meeting.

Important Note: Hall opens at 8:30 AM. The meeting will start at 9:00 AM. We have the Hall till 12:00 pm

- Treasurer's Report: None today.
- Cookies: Thank you Mary and Dennis for bringing in goodies. Next week is Jennifer and Susan.
- Guests: No new members or guests today.
- Website: Facebook seems a good tool for reaching younger people.
- Business:
- Veteran 'Stackable Snowman' – 25 collected so far. The deadline is Nov 27.
 - Brigden Fair – Feedback from the Ark display was very positive. This was an excellent way to promote the club to the community. Currently the Ark is at Pat's house, if anyone has another option for storing the Ark, please let Pat know. Before summer break, the club will discuss options for a permanent home for the Ark.
 - Sarnia Theatre Logo carving – The logo will be reviewed by Sarnia Theatre reps within the next few weeks. The next step after the review will be to add the finish.
 - Tool Sale – Kathy C. will be here Oct 30th to sell her late father's carving tools and burning tools.
 - Upcoming Lessons/Demos – Nov 20th: Harvey will hold a scroll saw demo. There is no sign-up for this demo.
 - TBD : Bonnie S. (from the 'Beacon' publication) will hold a free calligraphy class for making a Welcome sign or a Name sign (4" tall). Wood for the sign will be provided. Details are still being finalized. Stay tuned.
 - Birthdays – It's Jean-Paul's birthday!!! Happy Birthday Jean-Paul.
- Tech talk: Terry has walnut, cherry, cedar, all various sizes. These are available for a good deal.

Upcoming Events:

Oct 30th – Kathy C. Tool sale.

Nov 20th – Harvey scroll saw demo.
